Foreword

The following pages contain all additions and corrections to the "Parke Families of Connecticut" that have come to the attention of the compiler since that book was issued in 1906.

It not being practicable to print a new edition of that genealogy at this time, it was thought best to publish this supplement, so that the information would be preserved. Otherwise much of this data might be irrevocably lost.

It is printed on one side of the paper only, so that those owning the original book may if they wish cut up this supplement and insert the items in their proper places.

This publication, like all others of a similar character, could have been made much more complete if those to whom personal letters were sent had kindly paid more attention and replied more fully.

There are still many families that are very incomplete. The compiler will continue to receive and preserve any corrections or additions and hold them for the benefit of the descendants.

ADDITIONAL PARKE COATS-OF-ARMS

Since the "Parke Families of Connecticut" was published, in 1906, several more Parke coats-of-arms have come to the attention of the compiler and are shown herewith.

NO. 12

"PARKE. Az. an eagle displayed ar. armed or."

NO. 13

"PARKE. Sa. an eagle displayed within a bordure ar."

The above were taken from an old book, "A Complete Body of Heraldry, by Joseph Edmonson. London, MDCCLXXX, Vol.II."

It will be seen that arms 12 and 13 are practically the same, except that they have different colors, and one has a border.

NO. 14

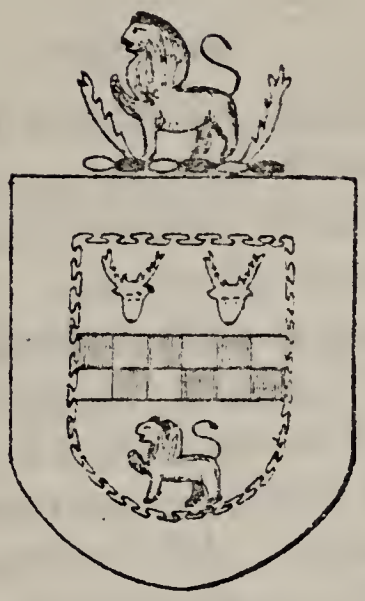
Upon the escutcheon is placed a helmet befitting his degree, with a mantling azure and or., and for his Crest, on a wreath of the colours, upon a mount vert, a stag's head caboshed gules, between two marigolds slipped proper; with the motto, "Providentiæ me Committo."

These arms were used by Mr. Philip Samuel Park Esq., whose address was Altadore, Preston, county Lancashire, England.



NO. 16

Or. a fesse counter-compony Gules and argent, between two stag's heads caboshed in chief and a lion passant in base of the second, all within a bordure nebuly of the last. Mantling gules and or. Crest—on a wreath of the colors, between the attires of a stag proper a lion passant or, charged on the shoulder with an estoile gules. Motto, "Vince in bono malum."

The above was used by Herbert Thomas Parke and Alfred Ernest Park, of Withmel, near Chorley, Eng.

CRESTS;

With arms not given. From The Book of Family Crests, London, 1838; published by Henry Washbourne.

NO. 17 NO. 18 NO. 19

No. 17. PARK. A sinister hand holding an open book. Motto, "Sapienter et pie."

No. 18. PARK and PARKE. (On a ducal coronet,) a lion passant, ducally crowned; ppr.

No. 19. PARK. A stag lodged, proper.

ROBERT[1] PARKE IN ENGLAND

About three months after the "Parke Families of Connecticut" was published Mr. Winthrop S. Gilman, of Palisades, N. Y., who was making a tour of Europe, spent considerable time in an effort to locate the birthplace of Robert[1] Parke. Robert's birthplace and the name of his father were not found: but his marriage and the dates of births of his two oldest children were discovered. Mr. Gilman's researches were all made in the neighborhood of Suffolk county, England.

The Semer records give the following:

Martha Chaplin, dau. Wilia Chaplin, bapt. Feb. 4, 1584-5, [A note on the margin says this date should be 1583-4.]

Robert Parke and Martha Chaplin were married Feb. 9, 1601-2.

Robert Parke son of Robert Parke and Martha, bapt. June 4, 1605

William Parke son of Robert Parke and Martha bapt. April 21, 1607.

William Chaplyn was buried Oct. 15, 1629.

PAGE 27

In order to commemorate the three-hundredth anniversary of the landing of ROBERT[1] PARKE in America, a number of his descendants, in August, 1930, erected a beautiful bronze tablet, marking his last resting place, in the Whitehall Cemetery at Mystic, Conn.

THE WILL OF ROBERT PARKE

Is recorded in New London, Conn., under date of March 14, 1664-5. In this will he calls himself: "I Robert Parkes of Mistick near New London:" and mentions "Eldest son Wm. Parks who I make sole executor all houses and lands in Mistick. 175 acres more or less." To son Samuel Parke 50 pounds sterling "to be paid by said Executor in good merchantable goods at price current at time of payment —in case he my said son Samuell shall first come and demand the same in Roxbury within the time and place of seven years next and immediately after the date hereof." Also mentions his son Thomas. The will is dated May 13, 1660.

On the occasion of his eighty-eighth birthday Mr. Parks received a fine tribute from his rivals in the bridge business which read, in part, as follows: "For eighty-eight years you have journeyed this earth—more time than is allotted to most men—and you have borne your share of the burdens and have received a reasonable portion of the joys of living; but through joys or sorrows, come what might, you always appeared with the same smile that never came off, and we know full well you will wear that smile when Gabriel's trumpet sounds. This same sunny disposition extended from the time 'back in Maine' while serving your state in the legislature with that giant statesman, James G. Blaine, was one of your colleagues—yes through the earliest years that any of us knew you to the present time. When the century year of your career on mother earth is not far away, and which we one and all hope you will live to see."
